

THE WHITE HORSE OF THE PRAIRIES.

A correspondent of the New York Spirit of the Times, writing from Texas, gives the information that the celebrated White Horse of the prairies, seen by Kennel and other travelers, has at last been caught alive. The letter-writer says:

I saw him a prisoner, tied by one leg, deprived of his freedom, and visited by many as a natural curiosity. He is a flea-bitten grey, about 14 hands high, well proportioned, and built a good deal after the pattern of a Tennessee No. 2. His head and neck are really beautiful—perfect Arabian—facsimile of the Gossowin. Beautiful ears, large nostrils, great breadth of forehead, and a throat as large as any I have seen in any blood nag. His beautiful white mane is two feet long, and his foretop in proportion. He was very much lacerated about his head and legs, the effect of the lasso in catching him. From his appearance he must be quite old—say 20 or 25.

LOOK FORWARD.

One year the nearer wife,
Are we to death;
Tune, love, that breathe life,
Garners our meeth.

Let not thy dear face own
Looks of distress;
If days of love are gone,
Sorrows are less.

Look forward cheerily—
Hope to the last!
Wouldst thou live wearily,
Cling to the past.

LYNCHING IN FLORIDA.—The mob that hanged Yeoman, the slave Stealer and murderer, in Gadsden County, Florida, 9th inst., joined in prayer for the eternal salvation of the wretch they were about to murder. Three or four preachers of the Gospel joined in the exercises. It is said that when he heard the sentence of death, he fell senseless and begged the chairman of the mob to pray for him. He confessed, under the gallows, that he was both a murderer and a robber.

MT. SYLVAN ACADEMY.

FOR MALES.

LARAYETTE COUNTY, MISS.
Eleven Miles West of Oxford and Sixty Five S. E. of Memphis.

THIS Institution will be opened for Students in a term of five months, about the first of March next.

By the liberality of the citizens of this and the neighboring counties, an excellent frame building will be ready, containing abundant rooms for recitation and other purposes; also, dwelling houses for Teachers and Boarders; Out-buildings, Play-grounds, Garden, &c. for an extensive and permanent Boarding School.

The furniture of the Academy shall be of the most approved forms, combining health, comfort, and usefulness. An Apparatus for Philosophical and other purposes; a Select Library for the use of pupils; and the most valuable Maps and Charts that the Eastern cities afford, will render our advantages second to none.

This location is peculiarly desirable for a Boarding School.

It was selected by a committee, with an especial view to health, from a highly and salubrious region, where no miasmata from stagnant water, or local cause for diseases of any sort can possibly be found.

The Board of Trustees takes pleasure in announcing that, for the management of this Academy, they have procured the services of Professor R. Morris, late of De Soto Academy, so long known to the citizens of North Mississippi, as an untiring servant in the cause of Education.

The health of Professor M. being re-established, the Trustees feel that they cannot better recommend the advantages of the Mount Sylvan Academy than to say that he will carry it on with all the skill with which his experience and talents promise.

Assistant teachers will be engaged as needed.

A Boarding House for applicants will also be ready and will be enlarged as the wants of the school may require.

Prices of good board will range from $30 to $40 per Session.

The Trustees wish it to be understood that they hold the Principal of the Academy responsible for the conduct and management of whatever steward he may select to conduct the Boarding House.—This will be a guarantee to those who send their sons to the Academy that every attention will be paid to their comfort in health and sickness.

THE TERMS OF TUITION ARE,
For the sciences in which the English language is used as a medium,

$10 00
$20 00

For other languages,
There are no extra charges of any sort, save in case of actual damage, and free use of apparatus, Library, &c., will be given to every student.

$200 REWARD.

PROCLAMATION.

By ALBERT G. BROWN, Governor of the State of Mississippi.

WHEREAS it has been made known to me, that one LEIGH TEMPLETON did, on the 27th of November, in the year 1845, in the town of Panama, in this State, kill John P. Woodruff, and that said Templeton immediately thereafter fled from justice.

Now, therefore, I, Albert G. Brown, Governor of the State of Mississippi, do by this Proclamation, offer a reward of two hundred dollars to any person who will arrest said Leigh Templeton, and deliver him to the sheriff of Polk county, or confine him in any jail in this state.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State of Mississippi, at the city of Jackson, January 12, 1846.

A. G. BROWN.

By the Governor: W. S. HEMINGWAY, Secretary of State.

DESCRIPTION.
Templeton is six feet high, dark hair, 25 years of age, weight 170 or 180 pounds, inclined to be round shouldered, lame in his right leg, and speaks little in speaking. He was raised in Lincoln county, Tennessee. His name was probably Jerry or Leonard, but he went by the name of Leigh. The Panama Times and Nashville Union, will each insert once a week for four weeks.
